

200 events and 40,000 people at County Show

MUNSTER'S longest-running agricultural showcase returns for its biggest show weekend to date on Saturday June 20th and Sunday 21st June.

This year's Cork County Show at the showgrounds in Curraheen, will have new traffic improvement measures introduced across the full show weekend for the 40,000 visitors.

The 2026 programme of more than 200 events will see a number of exciting new additions, including the agriculture talks and demonstration marquee, which will feature a live working farm experience with milking cows, machinery demonstrations, and interactive learning opportunities focused on modern farming and sustainability. Visitors can also look forward to the Cork Reenactment military show, the RSA education truck and Tug of War Ireland, adding a new competitive and spectator element to the event.

As usual hundreds of competitions across livestock and equestrian will take place along with horticulture, baking, art and traditional craftsmanship with the return of firm favourites chick hatching and pony experiences.

With new additions such as the rabbits and guinea pigs in the poultry marquee on the Saturday, this year's Cork Summer Show is shaping up to be a vibrant mix of farming, food, live entertainment and hands-on family fun.

To plan your trip, book your tickets and to get all competition details, visit www.corksummershow.com/, where early bird tickets are on sale until Monday May 11th.